- Convert all the fractions to decimals.

- ❖ Learn tables of 2 to 20.

ACTIVITY 5: Watch the National geographic channel /discovery Channel/animal planet and make a display card/ information card on endangered animals. List the steps which you will take to protect the animals from becoming endangered.

Note: Do your bit to save the birds!! Make a bird feeder and keep a bowl of water for birds. This summer they need you. Provide them with a hand -made nest if possible, and take the pictures of the birds when you are feeding them.

❖ In today's age and generation girls and boys must work with their mother to help them in their daily chores. We know exactly what all mothers go through the whole day. Hence it is our foremost responsibility to help her in the kitchen. Ram has a habit of helping his mother at home. He helps his mother by laying the table for dinner. One day his cousin lit a matchstick and burnt the paper laid on the table and he noticed that it turned to ashes. Based on the Ram's activities, answer the following:

- Identify the various types of forces he used in lifting the bowls
- List all the simple machines used in arranging the table.
- Mention the physical and chemical changes observed on the table.

❖ Make a fruit salad with spices and write the recipe for it.

Note: Don't forget to add a pinch of salt in every juice you make, to reduce acidity.

❖ Collect information related to space, flora, fauna, health and environment from newspaper articles. Minimum 2-3 articles must be collated on the above topics and the same should be presented in the form of a collage.

❖ Many people study the past to see what life was like before our time. Certain people called archaeologists study the past through looking at the remains of people and societies before us. There remains can be material goods, bodies or even entire cities that were preserved in time.

Imagine the year is 2111. You are an archaeologist excavating the area around your house. List ten items you find in the course of excavation. Make a beautiful collage of the same and make it as colourful and attractive as possible.

In the past, palm leaf Manuscripts were made out of dried palm leaves. They were used as writing materials in India reportedly dating back to the 5th century BCE.

Make a Manuscript. Take a broad leaf. Put it under a heavy book for ten days. On the leaf, write -Why do you like history? or Why is History so interesting? Art supplies like sketch pens and paints can be used for writing on the leaf.

Suggested Reading

Read the book "Marguerite Makes a Book". The whole process of constructing a book and creating the painting materials is a part of the story. The link for the book on YouTube is given below.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=10ksUvqDOwE>

The book is set in Paris in the 1400s and talks about Marguerite who helps her nearly blind father finish painting an illuminated manuscript.

❖ PALM HISTORY

Every family has a story. It's good to share them so you know who helped make you who you are. Trace the outline of your hand and pen down your family history inside the palm. Keep the below points in mind

- Explore family stories
- Know where your family is from
- Find an object that means something to your family
- Share your family stories

We are looking forward to listening to some amazing stories about your family from you.

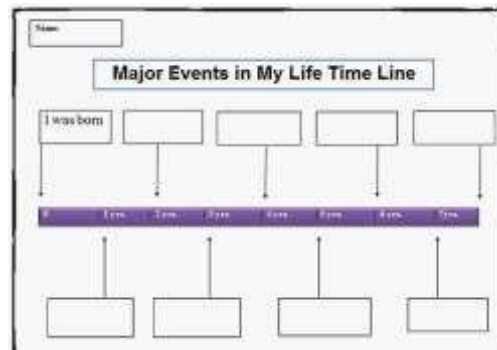

ACTIVITY 18 : Read the newspaper daily (online/hard copy). (Suggested newspapers: The Times of India; Telangana Today; The Hindustan Times)

Separate any 10 informative news articles (currentaffairs/science/technology/education/sport /entertainment) and make a collage of the same.

ACTIVITY 6: A timeline is a visual learning aid that helps students organise a series of events in the order they happened.

Create an autobiographical timeline. An autobiographical timeline is a timeline about yourself. You can include your date of birth, your first day of preschool, times your family has moved, or other events you think are significant.

NOTE: Do Activity 16-19 on A - 4 sheets, tie it with satin ribbon and design a creative cover page for the same.
