NEW DELHI: The final week of April is set to see intense heat with temperatures in Delhi expected to even soar close to the all-time April record of 45.6 degrees Celsius, according to India Meteorological Department (IMD) predictions. IMD has forecast that the maximum temperature in Delhi on April 27 and April 28 is expected to touch 43-44 degrees Celsius at Safdarjung, the Capital's base station, and added that the day heat may even soar to

WHILE THIS SPELL OF INTENSE HEAT IS EXPECTED TO CONTINUE TILL THE END OF APRIL, SOME RELIEF MAY COME IN EARLY MAY, IMD HAS SAID

45-46 in some parts of the city. While this spell is expected to continue till the end of the month, the impact of a western disturbance across northwest India from April 28 onwards may provide some relief, officials said. Delhi recorded a high of 39.5 degrees Celsius on Sunday – two degrees above normal. Meanwhile, heatwave to severe heatwave conditions are likely to set in over several parts of northwest and east India by the end of April and extend into early May, IMD said. East Uttar Pradesh, Odisha, Jharkhand, Bihar, are likely to be significantly impacted by heat stress, parts of northwest India are likely to also report extremely high temperatures, the forecast stated. APR 17

Covid-19: Haryana to provide free booster doses to all aged between 18 and 59

The health ministry in its morning bulletin for the day said India's Covid-19 vaccination coverage has exceeded 187.71 crore (1,87,71,95,781).

Covid-19 vaccination for the age group 12-14 years was started on March, 16, 2022. The Haryana government on Monday said it will provide free booster Covid-19 vaccine doses to those between 18 and 59 years of age in government hospitals. The state government will bear the expense and will spend ₹300 crore for the same, news agency ANI reported.

The move comes days after the Delhi government made precautionary or booster doses available free of cost for people aged between 18 and 59 years in government hospitals.

In a statement on Friday, the Delhi government said precaution doses will soon be provided free of cost to people in government hospitals by the city government.

"Precaution doses of the same vaccine will be given to the people who have revived the first and second doses of the vaccine and who have completed nine months of taking their second dose," the statement said.

On Thursday, Haryana made the wearing of face masks mandatory in four districts – Gurugram, Faridabad, Sonapat and Jhajjar. A fine of ₹500 was also imposed in case of a violation. Amid the possibility of a fourth wave of coronavirus, many states have brought back the mask mandate.
